Note: first-year CGC dogs may only take the CGC class unless the following occurs:
A letter is written to the board of directors and approval has been given after review of written application.

If you wish to take just a showmanship and/or agility class you must meet either or both of these qualifications:
Dog has been trained to the graduate novice level in obedience or Advanced level in Rally obedience and/or approval by the board of directors has been given after review of written application.

You may be asked to change class times if one of the classes is too full or too small. If you must have one time or the other please write on the back why you need to be at that time for this class.
